CWL will remove all political signs and if not claimed will be destroyed. There is no charge, but a sign permit will be required. We suggest only one (1) sign per candidate be put out so as not to crowd the designated area. Political signs may be put up by members only

Candlewood Lake Deed Restrictions

P305.02 Advertising and For Sale Signs:

Advertising and For Sale signs: No sign advertising a product or service shall be placed on any property except as follows: (1) Owners or their authorized agents or builders may advertise property for sale that has a dwelling on it in whatever state of completion. Dwelling is defined as a house, mobile home, or RV, if the RV is being sold with the lot. For sale signs are limited to one sign per dwelling or two signs for those dwellings bounded by the lake or two roads. (2) Contractors, builders, or remodelers may advertise their activity while directly involved in building or placing a dwelling on lots. Signs for this purpose are limited to one. (3) The Association may place a sign or signs advertising services or products available in the development at or near the Association Office or Main entrance gate. All of the above signs must have a prior written approval of the Association Office before being placed on a lot. (4) House for sale signs, with an arrow, are permitted at the intersection of any subdivision road that intersects with Candlewood Drive or Candlewood Blvd. One additional house for sale sign, with an arrow may be placed at the intersection of a second road from Candlewood Drive. Signs for this purpose are limited to one sign per intersection and must be placed a minimum of six (6) feet from the road (s). Realtor's signs are not permitted at the road intersections. Signs may be in place for a maximum of 180 days and subject to renewal. Signs are to be removed 24 hours after closing. Offsite property signs must be removed 24 hours after closing and on-site signs must be removed within 14 days after closing.
